NATIONAL SYMPOSIUM

16th Sept. 2016

on

Shakespeare's Women Characters

(Marking the Quadri-centennial Death Anniversary of the immortal writer)

Under the aegis of

District Resource Centre, West Godavari

Organized by

Department of English, RRDS GDC

About the College

RRDS Govt. Degree College was established in Bhimavaram, West Godavari District in 1972 by Sri Chintalapati Varapasada Murthy Raju who set up as many as 68 educational institutions under the umbrella of Sri Chintalapati Bapiraju Dharma Samsthalu. It was named after Sri Raja Ramamohan Roy as "Raja Ramamohanroy Dwi Sathajayanthi College" commemorating the bicentenary birth celebrations of the social reformer. The College is affiliated to Adi Kavi Nannaya University, Rajamahendravaram and accredited by NAAC, Bangalore in May 2014. Academicians like Sri V. Srinivasa Rao and Dr. G. Ananda Reddy served the Institution as Principals. Presently, the Institution is led by Dr. J. Sanath Kumar.

About the Department

The Department of English was started in 1972. Senior faculty like Dr. Patta Devaraj and Sri P. Satyanarayana Raju extended their services in the Department. Presently, the Department is led by Sri T. Akki Raju.

About the Symposium

Shakespeare is acclaimed as the undaunted spirit of writing and the immortal genius. Ben Jonson's "He was not of an age, but for all time!" speaks of the universality of Shakespeare's plays. His plays mirror to the kaleidoscopic life of human beings. Marking the Quadri-centennial Death Anniversary of Shakespeare, the National Symposium is focused on creating awareness among students about the writings of Shakespeare. In particular, a strong need is felt to disseminate the commendable traits of Shakespeare's women characters among the present generation which has closely witnessed 'women empowerment'.
